A good luck dinner bell may be made by welding two horseshoes together as shown in the illustration. A window sash serves as a clapper. It should be hung on rawhide.

First Hatching Proven Desired Characteristics

Chicks that hatch first in any group should mature at an earlier date, should be predominately female, and should feather more rapidly than those that are slower in hatching. The later hatched chicks should also have a higher mortality. Tests at the Maine agricultural experiment station would indicate that hatching time is a matter of inheritance, thus by selection, these desirable qualities can be bred.

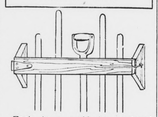
Place for Tools



Each barn could be equipped with a rack, as shown, in which all tools like shovels, hoes and forks could be placed to keep them from getting underfoot. Not only would it be a safety measure, but the tools would be kept in much better shape.

Millions of you await your newspaper boy every day. He is important to me and to you. He is the citizen of tomorrow. He may be your lawyer, doctor, business man, mechanic, engineer, manufacturer, and, perhaps, your President. $93,000 newspaper boys like Jimmy sold $175,822,823.50 in War Stamps and Bonds. Now that the war is over, Jimmy hasn't stopped buying savings stamps and bonds. I am proud of the way Jimmy backed the attack against our enemies—I am equally proud of Jimmy now for backing his future.

Electricity works for peanuts!

AND if you aren't up on today's expressive slang, peanut means a very small amount of money. Like your electric bill. It really is peanuts, isn't it—compared to most other items in your family budget?

While the cost of most things climbed through the years—the price of electric service kept right on going down. Even in wartime, when practically all prices popped up, electricity actually became a few peanuts cheaper.

As a matter of fact, the average American family gets twice as much electricity for its money today as it did 20 years ago!

All of this goes to prove an important point. Sound business management—and experienced employees—together have given the American people dependable, low-priced electric service—the best and the most in the world! You'll enjoy that service even more in the electric years ahead.

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

FRANK: "Would you mind repeating those percentages again, Judge . . . they're very interesting to me?"

OLD JUDGE: "Certainly, Frank. Men who have made a study of drinking report that 95% of those who drink, drink sensibly. 5% drink excessively at times. And included in that 5% is the small percentage of drinkers known as alcoholics."

FRANK: "And what was that about alcoholics being sick people?"

OLD JUDGE: "That is what scientific research disclosed. In other words, it found that, in most cases, it was no craving for alcohol that made people drink to excess. Alcoholics were found to be suffering from some deep-rooted mental, physical or emotional condition. If they hadn't turned to alcohol for escape, they would have turned to something else."

FRANK: "I am glad to learn about this enlightened viewpoint, Judge. I can see how it is possible to cure so many of these sick folks today . . . now the real cause is known."

Push Hunt for German Treasure

Millions Believed Planted Outside of Country.

WASHINGTON.—The western Allies recently began an all-out effort to track down the multi-million-dollar fortunes cached by Nazi bigwigs outside of Germany.

American, French and British officials assembled for a series of negotiations with Swiss representatives over German external assets in Switzerland, estimated at from 250 million to 750 million dollars.

State department officials hoped the talks would put them definitely on the trail of the "rainy day" fortunes of such Nazi higher-ups as Hermann Goering, Joachim von Ribbentrop and perhaps even Adolf Hitler.

The officials said the only lead they ever got on Hitler's hidden wealth came about 2½ years ago when it appeared he was feeding royalties from his book, "Mein Kampf," into Switzerland.

The Swiss estimate German assets in their country at about one billion francs or 250 million dollars. American officials believe it may be closer to three billion francs.

The American delegation is headed by Randolph Paul, formerly with the treasury department, and Seymour Rubin of the state department.

U. S. officials said a big obstacle in the search was the fact that many deposited their fortunes through four or five other persons, often in very complicated chains. In addition, many Nazi bank accounts were closed out early in 1945 and the funds transferred elsewhere.

The United States hopes the Swiss will consent to turn the German holdings over to the Allies for distribution as war reparations. The Swiss, however, have said that United Nations' capture of the German assets would violate international law as well as Switzerland's traditional neutrality.

EMPLOYMENT IN VIRGINIA NOW ON THE INCREASE

Richmond, June 19.- Employment among Virginia manufacturers has weathered the post V-J Day slump and now is on the increase, according to Commissioner of Labor John Hopkins Hall, Jr.

In a report to Governor Tuck, Mr. Hall revealed that total employment in the manufacturing field of the Commonwealth as of March 15, date of the latest compilation, stood at 195,000, an increase of 18 per cent over the pre-war level of 165,000 recorded in the third quarter of 1939.

The rise in employment has been under way in this state since last October. At that time the total stood at 188,000, having dropped steadily from the wartime peak of 237,000 reached in February, 1943.

How women and girls may get wanted relief from functional periodic pain

Cardui is a liquid medicine which many women say has brought relief from the cramp-like agony and nervous strain of functional periodic distress. Here's how it may help:

1 Taken like a tonic, it should stimulate appetite, aid digestion, thus help build resistance for the "time" to come.

2 Started 3 days before "your time", it should help relieve pain due to purely functional periodic causes.

Try Cardui. If it helps, you'll be glad you did.

Uncle Sam Says

None of us will ever celebrate D-Day in the spirit of a gay holiday. On the contrary, June 6 is forever enshrined as a day of sacrifice. Two years ago, on the beaches of Normandy, all our hopes for a peaceful, happy future were in the balance at bloody invasion. The best observance you can make of the first peacetime anniversary of D-Day is to make sure you are buying all you can of victory bonds as ever. You helped the attack—now back your counter-attack—for prosperity!
